Foreword

Again, we present to you our Waxahachie High School yearbook, "The Chief." We have tried to include a portion of everything that makes up our school — yes, even a few classroom shots.

We trust that you, the Seniors, may take this, Volume V of "The Chief," with you proudly wherever your next step in life may take you. We wish you the best of luck; our thoughts go with you, and may God bless you.

Dedication

For her active interest, enthusiasm, and help in student activities; for the vigorous championing of good public school education in Texas, including those many trips to Austin; for her constant faith in the youth of our school; for being one of the best prepared and qualified teachers in her field; for just being herself and a friend; we, the annual staff dedicate this, Volume V, as a feeble effort at gratitude to Mrs. Rae Files Still.

Spirit of '54

For many years Waxahachie High School has rated high in the ranks of high schools in Texas. No matter what the field of endeavor, be it in the area of sports, music, or scholarship, the students and faculty have taken pride in our achievements.

This year there has been seen a rebirth of that spirit of old, that fighting spirit of the Waxahachie Indian which has made our school what it is today. And from this re-kindling of the fires has evolved our theme, "THE SPIRIT OF '54," so like that fighting spirit for right of 178 years ago.

Now, pass through the pages of our school "diary" and discover for yourself that theme and spirit making itself felt on every page!

Y-Teen girls sell candles, the receipts of which go to fill Red Stockings. The girls organize groups to sing carols to those who have bought candles. The club sponsors an all school dance at mid-term. In the spring the Y-Teen girls honor the boys of the school with a formal banquet and dance. Two representatives attend the state conference which is conducted by the Y.W.C.A. during the summer.

This is the first year that our Physical Education classes elected officers. The qualifications are: to be honest, set a good example for their classes, church workers, to be dependable, and to be non-smokers. They were also selected from upper-classmen.

The officers' duties are: See that the clothes are handed out and returned properly, check the roll, take charge of activities when the instructor has other obligations, put all equipment in proper places before leaving the gym, and anything else that will be of help to her classmates and instructor.

These girls take pride in working to keep improving our P. E. Department.

Again, this year the staff of "The Chief" together with the student body and faculty of Waxahachie High School closes this, the fifth annual edition of "The Chief," with a word of grateful appreciation for our advertisers. Although there are evidently many businessmen who doubt the effectiveness of yearbook advertising, the greater majority have realized that by purchasing annual advertising they are not only living up to their civic responsibilities, but buying an advertisement whose longevity is not measured by minutes as in radio, by days as in newspapers, nor by months as in magazines, but by untold years of being read and re-read by a student body and its families who represent a vast buying public. Thanks again to you who have given us your support.

Another note of thanks is in order to the faculty for its cooperation (especially during picture-taking days). And to Mrs. Fearis and her commercial classes who were of invaluable aid to the sponsor and staff.

The Staff

it's a FACT!

As you turn these pages today, or on some tomorrow, you will re-live the wonderful times you had "back in the good ole' days" at your Alma Mater. With the passing of years this annual will become a priceless treasure-train to whisk you back along memory lane to rejoin your old friends and re-visit familiar places.

As we at USECO turn these pages, we see the America of tomorrow, the farmers, the lawyers, the doctors, and the many trades and professions so ably represented within these pages. We are honored to have played a part in recording this pictorial history of your 1954 school days . . .

. . . and THAT'S A FACT!
